This site provides information on how to receive calls from inmates at the Alabama Department of Corrections (ADOC).

ADOC has contracted with CenturyLink to provide calling and account billing services to inmates. Recipients of these calls may include friends, relatives, and attorneys.

Friends, family members, or attorneys can establish and fund prepaid calling accounts by phone or internet. Called parties can make payments directly to an inmate's calling account, or take advantage of a Prepaid Collect calling plan to accommodate calls to cell phones or accounts with credit issues.

REGULATORY DISCLOSURE: In-state ADOC customers may click here for information from the Alabama Public Service Commission (APSC) about services, rates, fees, refunds, complaint procedures and other useful information applicable to in-state Inmate Calling Services in Alabama. APSC maintains regulatory oversight for calls from Alabama correctional facilities that terminate within the state of Alabama. Calls to phone numbers outside of Alabama are regulated by the Federal Communications Commission.

Restrictions

The following restrictions may be applied by the ADOC to inmate calling:

- Limits on length of calls or calling availability hours; maximum call length is currently 30 minutes per call
- Limits on number of inmate calls or total monthly call minutes
- Call monitoring, recording, and inmate PIN validation (in order to place calls)
- Blocks on types of phone numbers (such as 800 numbers) or selected phone numbers
- Temporary or permanent denial of phone usage rights for such reasons as disciplinary problems or requests by a called party
